O'HAGIN'S, INC. CREATES ARCHITECTURAL SUPPORT SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Kelly Carlson joins O'Hagin's, Inc. as Manager, Architectural Support and Design Services

Rohnert Park, Calif. --- December 1, 2005 — O'Hagin's, Inc. named Kelly Carlson, Manager, Architectural Support Services. Ms. Carlson comes to O'Hagin's, Inc. after spending nearly seven years serving in a variety of capacities at large residential and commercial architectural firms.

In this newly created position, Ms. Carlson will spearhead O'Hagin's technical support and service efforts to the architectural community. She will work closely with the company's national sales team as well as with a collection of independent consulting firms O'Hagin's, Inc. currently has relationships with to develop complete attic ventilation analysis and criterion reports for architects, builders and contractors.

"O'Hagin's, Inc. is extremely pleased to welcome Kelly into the organization. She brings a wealth of industry experience and can greatly enhance our service offering to the architectural community. Her hire reinforces O'Hagin's commitment to provide the finest in technical support to architects, builders and contractors" said David Mutter, President and Chief Executive Officer of O'Hagin's, Inc.

Ms. Carlson holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Design, Architectural and Civil Technology from University of Advancing Technology in Tempe, Arizona.

O'Hagin's, Inc.

O'Hagin's, Inc. started as a roofing company over 30 years ago. Founded by Carolina and Harry O'Hagin, the company grew from a small shop into an international construction materials manufacturer. Committed to testing, O'Hagin's was one of the first companies to seek and secure testing approvals for attic ventilation products.

Today, O'Hagin's, Inc. is the leading attic ventilation manufacturer in the United States and sells millions of attic vents, holds over a dozen patents and is a proud partner to thousands of architects, builders, contractors and distributors. Throughout O'Hagin's history, its mission has remained the same – to provide customers with quality products, customized service and responsive support.
